

At UC Riverside, our former students include a Nobel Prize winner, a Pulitzer Prize winner, and a World Series champion. We've graduated CEO's and engineers, artists and authors, mayors and ministers, and a national poet laureate. Our students are making an impact here in California, around the globe, and out in space. Imagine the impact a UC Riverside graduate could make with your company.

Diverse. Dynamic. Ready to Lead.

The UC Riverside campus is the most diverse in the entire UC system. Our students come from a variety of backgrounds, but they all leave UC Riverside with a world-class UC diploma — prepared to succeed.

The University of California, Riverside has been formally recognized as a federally designated Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI) by the Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU).

Make your Presence Felt!

The UC Riverside Career Center can help you strategize the right mix of promotions, messages and recruitment events to maximize your impact on campus!

Diverse. Dynamic. Ready to Lead.

1. Campus Diversity

As the most diverse campus in the UC system, UC Riverside provides a learning environment in which talented students from a variety of backgrounds are challenged to succeed at the very highest levels. Our graduation rates confirm our belief in our students' ability to achieve and to lead.

2. Elite Student Body

As they arrive on campus, UC Riverside students represent the Top 12% of California High School graduates. They graduate prepared to succeed at the highest levels – having been trained by world-renowned faculty in state-of-the-art facilities.

3. In-Demand Majors and Courses of Study

UC Riverside students are prepared to fit the needs of your company today. We offered the first – and now the largest – Business Administration undergraduate degree program of any Southern California UC, and our students excel in high demand fields such as engineering, nano-technology, bio-engineering, computer science, chemistry and biological sciences.

4. World-Class University

UC Riverside is part of the University of California system – offering one of the most prestigious diplomas in the world today. Honored in its own right, UC Riverside was recently ranked No. 22 among all U.S. colleges by Washington Monthly College Guide and No. 38 among top public universities by U.S. News & World Report.

5. Personalized Customer Service

At the UCR Career Center, we go to great lengths to ensure that your recruitment experience is as effective and rewarding as possible. Our facilities have recently undergone a complete renovation and redesign for your comfort, and our center offers the latest technology including the virtual career center and recruiting online services that are available 24 hours a day for your convenience.

Five Ways to Brand Your Company On Campus

Effective recruiting begins with establishing a strong presence on campus. The UC Riverside Career Center can help coordinate your efforts to maximize impact and leave a lasting impression in the minds of our student body. Here are just a few of the many ways to build a mutually rewarding relationship with UC Riverside students and graduates!

1. Become a UCR Alliance Partner

The UCR Alliance Partners Program includes four levels of partnership – with an escalating rewards and promotions package. Using the table inserted into this packet, find the level of participation that’s right for your company. Become a UCR Alliance Partner and dramatically increase the visibility of your recruitment efforts on campus!

2. Become a Featured Employer

As a UCR Featured Employer, your company will be exclusively highlighted in a series of high profile activities for one week. Potential events include: feature stories, photos and logos on the Career Center home page; a “Featured Employer” booth centrally located on-campus; plus other special promotions utilizing both on-line and on-campus marketing efforts.

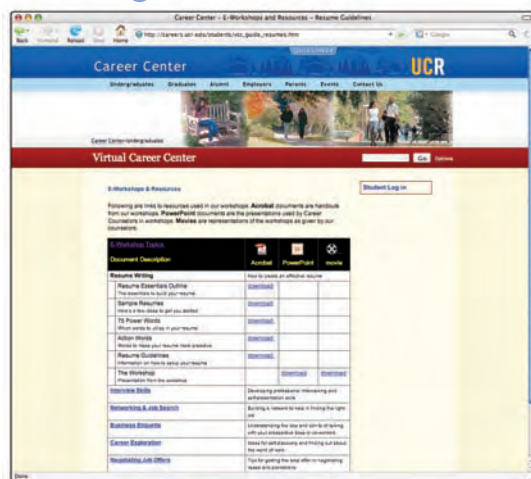

3. Engage in Web-Based Programs

When students want information they turn to the web. At the Career Center, we deliver your messages to our students in the way they prefer to receive them. That means utilizing the latest in web-based technology – from pod casts and PowerPoint presentations to on-line chats, 3-minute on-line company information seminars, and E-recruiting.

“Self motivation and the ability to think outside the box are very important to us and we tend to find those qualities from students that graduate from UCR.”

*Dave Dutchen
Recruiting Manager/College Relations
Enterprise Rent-A-Car*

4. Host an Employer Information Session

An information session or informal reception is one of the easiest ways to attract students. Meet with students in a casual atmosphere. Make them aware of career opportunities. Establish a presence on the UC Riverside campus.

5. Workshop/Guest Speaker Opportunities

Our students are hungry for career advice from industry professionals. They want to know what your company is looking for, and they're particularly looking for assistance with regard to resume writing, interview skills and networking strategies. Help us conduct a workshop or have a company representative appear on-campus as a guest speaker. It's a terrific way to distinguish your company from competing recruiters.

For additional branding opportunities at UC Riverside, please see the insert entitled, "Branding at UC Riverside." The insert is included in this packet and features a complete price list.

Five Effective Ways to Recruit at UC Riverside

The UC Riverside Career Center provides several ways for companies like yours to recruit on-campus. Increase your presence. Allow our students to become familiar with you and your needs. Watch interest in your company soar.

1. Post a Job

Reach a vast number of students instantly using our comprehensive, user-friendly SCOTjobs database. Post opportunities for full-time, part-time, work-study or internship positions. To get started, go to careers.ucr.edu. Best of all, there's no fee involved with posting positions targeting UC Riverside students.

“Riverside really could be a model for a research university that serves access and excellence missions.”

*Jennifer Engle
Research Analyst
Pell Institute for the Study of Opportunity in Higher Education*

2. Conduct On-Campus Interviews

Fast and painless! That pretty much sums up the On-Campus Recruiting process at UC Riverside. Our team will provide your company with comfortable interview facilities, we'll publicize your opportunities to the campus, and we'll provide the flexibility you need to create an efficient, effective interview schedule. Connect with qualified UC Riverside candidates face-to-face while you add to your strong presence on campus! For more information, contact the On-Campus Recruiting Coordinator at (951) 827-3834.

3. Attend Career Fairs

Career Fairs are an excellent way to promote your full-time, part-time or internship opportunities to thousands of students. These one-day recruiting events are held several times a year and are well-attended by 1500-2000 interested candidates.

For dates, registration and pricing go to: careers.ucr.edu or call (951) 827-3633.

4. Hire an Intern

UC Riverside's Internship program thrives on our excellent pool of students and employer partners alike. By providing invaluable "real life" practical experience for our students, your company receives enthusiastic, knowledgeable workers as you strengthen your ties to the university community. For more information, contact the Internship Coordinator at (951) 827-2735.

5. Hire a Federal Work-Study Student

Looking for talented, eager employees at a fraction of the typical hourly wage? Look into the federally regulated work-study program at UC Riverside. The Federal Work-Study program allows employers to provide qualified students with meaningful learning experiences on the job – for less than the typical hourly wage.

In order to qualify, employers must be a public or private non-profit organization and must be classified by the Internal Revenue Service as tax-exempt. We'll help you determine if your company is eligible to participate in this mutually beneficial program. Contact our Student Employment Coordinator at UC Riverside at (951) 827-2734.
